AGOAN LEADERSHIP

Mr. Padam Chand Jain (Founder)

Mr. Padam set the grounds for the Agoan Electronics. A bare minimum capital and hard work led Mr. Jain to begin his journey in building an empire. Gradually, a small shop with only brand Videocon later expanded and multiplied getting transformed into Agoan Electronics which has now multiple top brands and is one of the most successful electronics retail chains.

Mr. Padam always had positive attitude towards failures and frustrations. Not only this, but his qualities to go extra miles has made the Agoan electronics a household name.

Mr. Neeraj Jain (Managing Partner)

In the year 1991, Mr. Padam introduced his son, Neeraj Jain to Agoan Electronics. His ability of forecasting the future and bringing new ideas to the table has always taken Agoan electronics a one step closer towards achieving its goals and objectives.

With his natural ability to maintain relationships with the stakeholders and hard work has opened new doors for Agoan Electronics.

Mr. Pankaj Jain (Managing Partner)

Following the footsteps of his father and brother, Pankaj Jain joined the family business in 1993. With his deep understanding, knowledge about the market and real-life experiences he brings massive value to the firm.

The Exceptional business acumen and his risk-taking abilities comes out extremely beneficial for the company. Pankaj Jain is one of the pillars of an empire that is trusted by millions.
